Spatula Hard Coat Textures Blending Concentrates Sandblast Mirror Etch Resist Polyon SO White SO Black

Once again, Independence Day reminds us that the price of freedom is high, and that the willingness to earn that freedom is what made this country great. We at Deco-Chem hope that everyone had a wonderful 4th. Because many people will be on vacation, there will be no August issue. We will see you again in September. In the meantime keep sending those special projects to Matt Doorn, Dwight Davis, or myself, Brent Davis.

"When my girlfriend Alice called and said she had a flat tire, and that she was getting baked by the sun's UV rays, and would I come help her....."

.....I HAD A UREKA MOMENT!! I raced to the lab and created UV Matte 35. I knew this would make my screen printer friends really happy. Oh, did I mention she is now my ex-girlfriend? Anything for the customer.....eh? Your buddy Ed."

UV Matte 35 Liquid Flattener

Congratulations!.....to the five contest winners in the June issue. There were four for Olive Garden and one for Friday's. All callers who have questions about items in the newsletter will be included in the December Drawing.

Grand Prize

The Grand Prize is a gift certificate at your favorite department store for $300 or cash. Christmas will be just a few days after the drawing. So you can buy presents for your friends, or buy yourself a present! :^)
